FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5 1888

Haverly's minstrels to night

Quite a number of Colorado Springs people took advantage of the cheap rates to Pueblo yesterday

Rabbi Lodge No 21 A O U W will meet this evening. All members are requested to be present

The opening game of the season of the M and O club at Masonic hall last night was a very pleasant affair

President Cade of the Rock Island accompanied by quite a large party will arrive in the city this afternoon

Why don't the Crowells stir up the Jacksons base ball challenge? There is good material in both communities

Hon Job A. Cooper passed through the city yesterday en route to Pueblo where he was to make his last speech of the campaign

Sanford A Healey and Miss Jennie B Freeman both of Pueblo county, were married in this city, yesterday, Justice Shidler officiating.

A special train will run from Manitou this evening to bring over the people who wish to see the minstrels. Quite a crowd is expected

Mr S N. Francis arrived from the east yesterday after a successful and pleasant business and pleasure trip of three weeks duration

John Hipp the candidate of the prohibition party for congress addressed a crowd on the corner of Tejon and Huerfano streets last night for nearly an hour

Constable E D Redmond accompanied by Mrs Francis Holub went to Denver yesterday, where they will be married ere their return. Mrs Holub conducts a restaurant on Huerfano street.

The Florissant postoffice is now a money order office. It was opened for that business the first day of October. Money orders and postal notes can now be procured and is a great convenience to that community

It is said the Rock Island intends making the new town of Falcon quite a shipping point. Large cattle corrals are now being put in and a number of co-streets for loading sheep and cattle have been taken to be shipped as soon as completed

Those who did not attend the performance of Haverly's minstrels last Monday should not fail to go this evening and see the most beautiful display of troupe including the three cunning little All-rights Haverly gives the best minstrel performance of any company on the road

The Grand lodge of Good Templars of this state will meet in this city on Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday of next week. It is thought there will be between seventy five and one hundred delegates in attendance. All members in good standing of subordinate lodges will be admitted to the sessions of the grand lodge

The Phoenix Literary society will meet in the college chapel this evening at 7 45 prompt. President Shooting is expected will be present and make a few remarks. The following is the programme

Yesterday afternoon City Marshal Hodges arrested a negro for stealing some clothing from a street car. One day last week one of the drivers on the Colorado City line missed a jacket and rubber coat from his car. Yesterday the jacket was seen on the negro and he was immediately arrested his lodgings searched and the coat found. There is a very clear case against him

The prohibition county convention to nominate candidates for county offices will meet in this city on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the evening a mass meeting will be held in the open air at the corner of Huerfano and Tejon streets. Hon John Hipp candidate of the prohibition party for congress will address the meeting. Public speakers on both the democratic and republican side are invited to be present and divide the time with Mr. Hipp

A union Sunday school teachers' class will meet this evening at the Congregational church at 7 30. The class will be under the able leadership of Rev W H Brothead of Denver. Mr Brothead is widely and favorably known as a Sunday school worker. His Saturday teachers class in Denver has a membership of 1500. He is the president of the Sunday school work association and was in charge of the normal class work at the Glen Park Chautauqua. All interested in Bible study are invited

The entertainment given by the ladies of the Presbyterian society last evening for the benefit of getting into the new church, last night was a most pleasant affair. The handsome lecture room was filled with a fair crowd of people which began to assemble early in the evening and kept coming and going until late. The lecture room is pretty certain to be the central place of any kind for the town, but it was tastefully arranged with flowers and with the tables containing the fancy articles for sale arranged [illegible] Quite a goodly sum was realized from the affair, which will help along the building fund

Sheriff Jackson yesterday received a telegram from Bear City Butler county that one George Robertson could be found to arrest him on the charge of killing one Rosetta Davis, aged 11 years. A description of the two parties was given and the fact expressed that they were somewhere in the vicinity. Yesterday afternoon Under Sheriff Nay started down the road [illegible]

"Am afraid other papers have copy Herod and Mariamne' and will publish it soon. What shall I do." The editors reply was: "Telegraph it." So the entire tragedy was put on the wire and appeared next morning in The Tribune. The Tribune also has a special wire to Washington.

I have only begun to tell how a newspaper is made and shall have to take up the subject again in another letter.

A fair was opened in Salt Lake, on October 3d. The last legislature appropriated sufficient money to erect an exposition building, so that this year the fair has plenty of room and will give a very complete idea of the resources of Utah.

The republican party is put in a strong position before the people by the senate tariff bill. It fulfills the pledge made by the republican party in 1884. It is based on the idea that the present taxation is excessive and it stamps with both feet on that minority of the party which pre[vents] [re]vision. The senate bill is not a democratic tariff. The revision by the senate is national, while that by the house is sectional. It changes the issue the democrats are trying to make. They say the republican party is opposed to a revision of the tariff and a reduction of the surplus. The senate bill shows the incorrectness of both of these assumptions and makes the issue between two bills for the revision of the tariff. Everybody is now for revision. It is only a question of methods. The senate bill will put the republican party on the offensive and makes its point on strong to[uch] the country.

We have received the following preamble and resolution adopted by the Machinery Constructors Local Assembly No. 12 Knights of Labor.

WHEREAS, It is becoming evident that, no matter how prosperous we as a nation or how much business our manufacturers have, the laboring class cannot receive the natural benefits arising from such a condition owing to the undue competition of labor and

WHEREAS, The army of unemployed is growing larger and larger and the competition keener. Labor is fast losing its independence, and men are surely becoming serfs to capital and

WHEREAS, Pauperized labor is becoming depended to reason of the influx of Poles, Huns and Italians into our country and

WHEREAS, This state of affairs will continue to grow worse as long as we remain unfortified and free immigration [is] [en]couraged

Resolved, That a copy of the preamble and resolution be forwarded to the national board with a request to draft a bill making it unlawful for emigrants to land in this country without paying a per capita tax, said tax to be high enough to practically prohibit the Poles, Huns and Italians. The said bill to be presented to congress.

The preamble and resolution is accompanied by a circular explaining more fully the feelings of the knights. They [in]sist on a restriction of immigration [and] [an] extension of municipal [and] [co]mmercial [re]lations to the knock-down [and] [dra]g-out order. The circular also says [that] "Thousands [are] daily coming to us that which is not sufficient for [our] [own] Swedes, Germans, Irish, Scotch and English keeping trade flat to [the] ground." While the Poles, Huns and Italians do not go to the root of the labor question. They are willing to [work] [for] [any] [price] [and] [live] [in] [any] [way] [and] [are] [unable] [to] [organize] [their] [wages] [not] having learned to exist and be happy on a piece of black bread and raw onion. It [is] [a] [fact] [that] [many] [of] [the] [day] and our legislators at Washington should [be] [con]sidered. If instead of spending fifty one days in trying to agree on cheap suits of clothes they had given one half the time to the question it would have been better for [us].

[In] connection with the [above] [we] [clip] [the] [following] from the Denver Tribune. [It] [is] [a] [report] [of] [a] [speech] [made] [by] [Mr.] [Voorhees] [in] [the] [senate] [on] [the] [tariff] [bill]. [It] [is] [a] [democratic] [speech] [and] [is] [worth] [reading] [by] [republicans] [as] [well] [as] [democrats]. [It] [is] [a] [speech] [that] [will] [be] [quoted] [by] [democrats] [in] [the] [next] [campaign] [as] [an] [argument] [against] [the] [republican] [party]. [It] [is] [a] [speech] [that] [will] [be] [quoted] [by] [republicans] [in] [the] [next] [campaign] [as] [an] [argument] [against] [the] [democratic
